Holocaust Remembrance Day

Never Forget. Never Again.

Yom HaShoah

Thursday April 24th

Beginning at sundown on April 23 and ending at sundown on April 24, 2025, Israel and Jews worldwide will observe Yom HaShoah, Israel's Holocaust Remembrance Day. This solemn day, which falls on the 27th of Nisan on the Hebrew calendar each year, honors the memory of the six million Jewish men, women, and children brutally murdered during the Holocaust.

Throughout Israel, life comes to a halt for two minutes at 10 a.m., when air raid sirens sound across the nation.
People stop wherever they are—whether on foot, at work, or in their cars—standing in reflective silence to remember those lost. Flags are flown at half-mast, and communities gather for memorial ceremonies, where Holocaust survivors share their stories, and participants light six candles—one for each million Jewish lives taken.

Yom HaShoah is more than just a day of remembrance—it's a call to ensure that we never forget and that never again will such atrocities be allowed to happen.
