

This Week at Temple Israel of Long Beach
Experiencing the Warmth of Tradition

May 17, 2025
19 Iyar 5785
Shabbat Emor

Candle Lighting 7:50 pm
Kabbalat Shabbat – 8:00 pm
For week of 05/17/25 - 05/23/25

CONGRATULATIONS

Judith & Justin Rubin

on the graduation of their grand-daughter

Samantha Frisch

from SUNY-Cortland
Summa cum laude

Congratulations to the parents
David Frisch and Dr. Jennifer Rubin Frisch

Siblings

Benjamin and Jacob

Paternal grandparents

Beverly Frisch and poppa Harold Frisch
(of blessed memory)

May the family enjoy many more happy occasions

KIDDUSH

Co-Sponsored by

Zahava Glambosky

In memory of her husband Ahron

and

Eleanor T. Sobel

Celebrating the eternal people and happy birthdays to Eleanor and Abigail

We thank the following donors for their generous contributions to Temple Israel this past week.

Susan & Joseph Elhadeh

Nina & Michael Weiss

Eleanor T. Sobel

Zahava Glambosky

Ellen Horovitz

IN MEMORIAM

Rebecca Griboff
Frida Gordon
Willie Abraham
Dora Rutman
Mamie Wilson

Cathy Jackson
Irving Farkas
Nettie Eisenson
Ahron Glambosky
Eugene Mahler

ISRAEL DAY
ON FIFTH

Israel Day on Fifth 2025:
Marching Together in Hope
Sunday, May 18, 2025

11:30 am – 4:00 pm
Fifth Ave from 62nd St. – 74th St.

The streets of Manhattan will once again come alive as thousands gather for the annual Israel Day Parade on Fifth Ave. which serves as both a celebration of culture and a symbol of solidarity.

Marcie Livingston
Kai Denson
Joan Schlissel
David Schwartz
Helen Dresner
Dr. Robert Lev
Esther Buckner

Amos Pinchasin
Neilan Stern
Gert Griboff
Sima Buckner
Sidney Weinman
Elyse Silverman
Alan Koritsimsky