On Tuesday and Wednesday of this past week,
 we celebrated the new month of Adar.

מְשִׁינְנִים אֶדָר מְרַבִּין בְּשִׂמְחָה

"When Adar enters," the Talmud declares, "we increase in joy." For this is "the month that was transformed for them from sorrow to joy, from mourning to festivity" (Esther 9:22) by the great miracle and victory of Purim. Our sages advise that the month of Adar is an auspicious time for the Jewish people, so that if a Jew is faced with a challenging event (i.e., a court case, a medical procedure, etc.) he should endeavor to schedule it during Adar.

May this month be one of joy
 for the entire nation of Israel.
