TUESDAY MAY 5TH
Lag Ba'Omer
 33rd day of the Omer

Commemorating A Joyous Event

The Talmud relates that in the weeks between the holidays of Passover and Shavuot, a plague raged among the disciples of the great sage Rabbi Akiva (teacher of Rabbi Shimon bar Yochai), "because they did not act respectfully towards each other". On Lag Ba'Omer the deaths ceased. Thus, Lag Ba'Omer carries the theme of loving and respecting one's fellow Jew (ahavat Yisrael).

LONG BEACH HIGH SCHOOL
AUDITORIUM
May 6th – 5:30PM

The Names, Not Numbers film premiere at Long Beach High School is a student-created Holocaust documentary honoring the stories of survivors and their families.

The project is part of the Names, Not Numbers® initiative, which pairs students with Holocaust survivors and WWII veterans to produce oral history films.

EXHIBITION MAY 17 6:30 PM
 Temple Israel - Lower Lobby
