Tisha B'Av

Thursday July 23rd

Tisha B'Av, the ninth day of the month of Av, is a major day of communal mourning in the Jewish calendar. A large number of disasters are said to have befallen the Jews on this day. The major commemoration is of the destruction of the First and Second Temples in Jerusalem in 586 B.C.E. and 70 C.E., respectively.

During the course of the centuries, a number of tragedies have clustered around this day, from the expulsions of the Jews from England and Spain to more localized disasters. Tisha B'Av is therefore observed as a day of mourning, which is expressed through fasting and the abstention from pleasurable activities and extraneous diversions. A whole literature of dirges appropriate to this day of mourning are recited beginning with the biblical Book of Lamentations on the destruction of the First Temple.
